FEATURES

The strongest water-biting worm!
Gill-shaped version of bellows!

BELLOWS GILL

The entire body has a ribbed shape, so when a fish puts it into its mouth, it sucks it deep into its mouth without feeling any discomfort. By making the whole body rib shaped, we have achieved the strongest water bite, solid wave motion, and natural action. The original S.A.F material attracts fish with its smell and taste, resulting in a long bite.

SPEC

Full body rib structure
The delicate, deep-grooved ring shape of the body allows it to be held firmly in the mouth, absorbing water well, and transmitting taste and smell.

Tail
The ring shape that continues all the way to the tip of the tail firmly conveys the natural action to the tip of the tail.

Flat body
A side view of Bellows gill. Although it has a wide body, it is not very thick. Since it is a ring shape, it has a unique action that undulates both vertically and horizontally.
